Introduction

About This Guide

211 Manitoba is pleased to partner with the Manitoba Government in the development of the Manitoba Seniors Guide. This guide lists a wide range of community, health, and government programs in place to assist older adults.

This guide is printer friendly. A limited number of printed guides will be available throughout the province including from Senior and Community Resource Coordinators, Senior-Serving agencies and at other local hubs. To print a guide or learn about where to find a printed guide, visit mb.211.ca or call 211.

In addition to the guide, Manitobans looking for help can:

- CALL 211

Manitobans can dial “2-1-1” from anywhere in the province to access free, confidential service available 24 hours a day, seven days a week in more than 150 languages. A trained and friendly Service Navigator will provide personalized support to help callers connect with the appropriate information and services.

A toll-free number is available for those calling from outside Manitoba or for phone systems that do not support 3-digit numbers: Toll-free: 1-855-275-1197

- VISIT 211 ONLINE at mb.211.ca

The 211 MB website includes information on over 5000 organizations, programs, and services throughout Manitoba.

- LIVE CHAT is available on the website Monday to Friday from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. CST. The chat can also be used for text-based help.
- EMAIL 211mb@findhelp.ca

211 MB makes the pathway to resources a guided and trusted one. Thank you to United Way donors and the Province of Manitoba for making this vital service to Manitobans possible.

Note to Agencies and Programs

If you are from an agency or program and would like to be listed or have your information updated with 211 Manitoba, please contact us at info@mb.211.ca.

Senior Resource Coordinators

Seniors Resource Coordinators (SRCs), also called Community Resource Coordinators (CRCs), are an invaluable resource to help link and refer older adults to community supports, programs and services. Whether it is recreational, volunteer opportunities, exercise programs, or supports to help you meet your needs in daily life, it can be hard to know where to go. Seniors Resource Coordinators can talk to you about your needs and interests and connect you to the resources in your part of the city. Here are a few examples of the types of resources they can connect you to:

- E.R.I.K. (Emergency Response Information Kit) – provides important medical information about you, should a first responder arrive at your home during an emergency.
- Escorted transportation and other transportation options
- Yard and home maintenance referral program
- Networking and community outreach
- Congregate meal programs
- Educational materials and community presentations
- Health Services

Housing

Placement in a personal care home is not the only option to meet the changing needs of older adults. There are many different housing and support options available—whether you are staying in your current home or considering a future move.

Staying in your own home or aging in place

Most older adults prefer to remain in their own homes as long as possible. This is often called “aging in place.” It is important to consider what supports are needed for this to be a safe and health option. Don’t just think about your current needs but also your future needs.

Supports could include community-based programs and services such as home care, emergency alert systems, rent subsidies, meal delivery, home modifications, transportation options, and social or recreational activities.

For more information on community and home supports, call 211.

Home Care Services

Manitoba’s Regional Health Authorities (RHAs) offer home care services. These services are available to people of any age who need medical attention or support with daily activities. Home care assistance enables people to remain in their homes for as long as it is safe to do so. An assessment is used to determine what services you may qualify for. Services may include:

- Personal Care
- Nursing
- Counselling/Problem Solving
- Household assistance
- Respite/Family Relief
- Occupational Therapy Assessment

- Physiotherapy Assessment
- Referrals and Coordination
- Assessment for long-term care and specialty services, e.g., Adult Day programs, Companion Care program, and Supportive Housing.

For more information about home care services in Manitoba, contact your regional health authority office:

Adult Day Programs

Adult day programs help reduce social exclusion and loneliness, making it easier to maintain wellness and continue living at home.

Day programs encourage seniors to engage in enjoyable social activities away from home. There is a cost for these services, which are available through home care services.

For more information on day programs, contact the home care program in your region.

Self- and Family-Managed Home Care

Self-managed or family-managed home care is an alternative to traditional home care provided by the Regional Health Authority.

- Funds are provided to you and your family to arrange for your own home care.
- If home care is already being provided, speak with your case coordinator.
- If not already receiving home care, you will need to have an assessment to see if you are eligible.

For more information on self and family-managed home care, contact the home care program in your region.

Housing Types

There are many types of housing available in Manitoba. Becoming familiar with the types of housing will help you identify which type would meet your needs and preferences, as well as available supports. This section includes information on commonly requested housing for older adults.

SUBSIDIZED RENTAL HOUSING

Manitoba Housing provides subsidized rental housing in both properties that Manitoba Housing owns and operates and in properties that are owned and operated by private and nonprofit housing partners. For more information, please visit www.manitoba.ca/housing/progs/renters.html.

SUPPORTS FOR SENIORS IN GROUP LIVING (SSGL)

The Supports for Seniors in Group Living model developed through Manitoba's Aging in Place Initiative provides enhanced supports within some designated existing seniors' housing at no charge to tenants.

Supports range from one-on-one help arranging appointments or transportation, to social activities and expanded meal programs.

Your local Senior Resource Coordinator or Community Resource Coordinator may also be able to provide you with this information.

SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

As part of the aging-in-place initiative, Supportive Housing can help delay or avoid moving into a personal care home. Some features of Supportive Housing include:

- accommodation in a safe apartment within a community setting
- personal support services
- 24-hour support and supervision

In Supportive Housing the tenant pays the rent and a service package. This could include things like meals, laundry, housekeeping, etc. And the Regional Health Authority pays for the personal care provided through home care (no cost to the tenant).

Eligibility for supportive housing is assessed through the Regional Health Authority's Home Care Program. For more information on home care in your region, visit your RHA website.

PERSONAL CARE HOMES

Personal care homes provide 24-hour nursing care. When a person experiences a serious physical or mental decline, a personal care home may be a good option. Personal care homes are designed for those who can no longer live comfortably or safely at home or in a supportive housing setting.

Rental Supports

There are supports available to older adults who are renting and want to age in place:

RENT ASSIST:

- provides financial help to low-income seniors who rent their accommodations
- helps make your rent more affordable by paying you a benefit
- Bases the amount on your income and the cost of rent in the market for your family size

For more information, visit the Rent Assist.

LANDLORD RESPONSIBILITIES:

Did you know your landlord has obligations under the provincial Human Rights Code to make a reasonable accommodation to a request from a tenant based on a protected characteristic such as having a disability?

Reasonable accommodation often involves a simple change to how something is done that takes into account a special need a person or group has based on a protected characteristic. An example is a landlord installing a flashing smoke detector in the apartment of a tenant who is deaf. Please contact the Manitoba Human Rights Commission for more information.

RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES BRANCH:

The Residential Tenancies Branch can help you by providing information on rent increases, ensuring landlords follow rent increase guidelines, repairs and deposits, mediating disputes between tenants and landlords, and more. For more information, visit the Residential Tenancies Branch.

MOVING CONSIDERATIONS:

You will need to consider your current and future housing and support needs. Careful planning may assist you in making a move that is right for you and avoiding a move that does not meet your needs.

Before considering a move and signing an agreement, find out as much information as possible about the services provided (if any), the housing provider or landlord, and possible rent and service charges and increases.

WHAT LEGISLATION PROTECTS YOU?

- Renters: The Residential Tenancies Branch administers The Residential Tenancies Act
- Condo Owners: The Life Leases Act and tenancy-related matters fall under The Condominium Act.
